1. The Department of Education – Schools Division of Negros Oriental is one with the world in commemorating the World AIDS Day with the theme, “Ending HIV Epidemic: Equitable Access, Everyone’s Voice”, on December 1-15, 2021.
2. This year’s celebration seeks to amplify the administration’s campaign on HIV/AIDS awareness to enable Filipinos to have access to quality health care which is mandated by the HIV and AIDS Policy and the Universal Healthcare Act.
3. Anent this, in line with the occasion, this Office through the School Health Section will conduct the following activities:
 - a. A webinar on HIV and AIDS Awareness entitled “Breaking Stereotypes: Understanding HIV and AIDS” via Zoom with a resource speaker on December 15, 2021 at 2:00 pm.
 - b. Wellness dance with Division Office Personnel during the Virtual Flag Raising Activity on Monday, December 13, 2021 at 8:00 in the morning.
4. The expected participants of the webinar will be the Federated District Supreme Student Government (SGG) Presidents and their respective advisers. The participants are highly encouraged to ask questions, share insights and learnings during the Open Forum. Meanwhile, the participants of the Wellness Dance will be the Division Office personnel.
5. All participants in both activities are encouraged to wear RED.
6. The Public Schools District Supervisors/District-In-Charge and School Heads are hereby directed to ensure that the participants of the webinar will be able to register using the link below on or before December 13, 2021: <https://forms.gle/j66fk7gvsqbqNDc76>
7. Widest dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum are desired.
