No. 237 s. 2021

REVIEW ON THE ADDITIONAL CURRICULUM FOR LEARNERS WITH VISUAL AND HEARING IMPAIRMENT

To: Schools Division Superintendents (SDSs)
All Others Concerned

1. This Office, through the Curriculum and Learning Management Division, will conduct a Review on the Additional Curriculum for Learners with Visual and Hearing Impairment via Google Meet on February 8-11, 2021.
2. The activity aims to:
 - a. review thoroughly the additional curriculum for learners with visual impairment and the adapted K to 3 Most Essential Learning Competencies (MELCs) for learners with hearing impairment;
 - b. discuss the policy provisions on learners with disabilities as well as the basic information of hearing and visually impaired learners;
 - c. write supplementary learning activity sheets on difficult/least learned competencies in the additional curriculum; and
 - d. provide support on the successful implementation of the additional curriculum.
3. Participants to the activity from each division are the following:
 - Division SPED Focal Persons
 - 2 SPED teachers handling Visually Impaired (VI) Learners
 - 2 SPED teachers handling Hearing Impaired (HI) Learners
 - 2 Receiving/Regular teachers handling either HI or VI in an inclusive setting
 - 1 PSDS
 - 1 Principal

In the selection of participants, the SDOs are encouraged to choose those with laptop, and have strong internet connection in school.

4. The links for the online registration are as follows:
